

Exchange processes in the development of infrastructure projects

Internship in Civil Engineering at the Osnabrueck University of Applied Sciences
Supervisor	Prof. Dr. Heiko Meinen
Project	The project “exchange processes in the development of infrastructure projects“ is funded by the EUREGIO and is carried out in cooperation with the University of Twente and some industry partners from Germany and the Netherlands. The goal is to improve the exchange processes by examine the as-is situation, i.e. the communication, in road construction projects. For this purpose, interviews will be conducted with the practice partners, and a problem analysis and a best practice approach will be developed.
Tasks	Support regarding following tasks <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Problem analysis of communication in road construction projects- Developing a best practice approach by comparison Germany-Netherlands- Drawing up the final report- Translating transcriptions and the project summary (if proficient in Dutch)
Requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Basic understanding of project management (tasks) as well as infrastructural construction- Team spirit- Ability to work independently- Proficient in basic Microsoft Office applications
Language Skills	English: fluent German: basic knowledge useful, but not required Dutch: fluent, preferred
Duration	March to July 2020